

..ORIGINAL..

MANUFACTURERS SALE

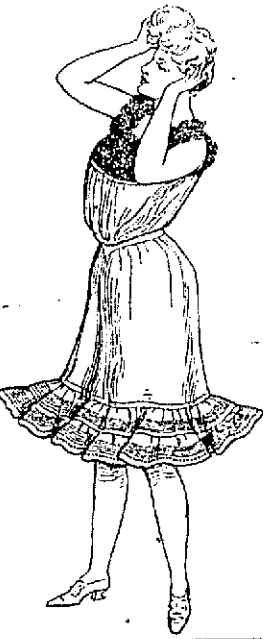

OF
LADIES MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

ALWAYS IN THE LEAD
It is the Secret of our Success.

We have been preparing for this sale for months, we have been most critical in the selection of our goods, securing only the choicest of patterns in the market. This enables us to give our customers better material, better trimmings and better prices than ever before.

SALE COMMENCES

Friday, February 10th, and Closes
Saturday, February 18th, 1905.

Heinemann Mer. Co.
GRAND RAPIDS, WISCONSIN.

Grand Opera House
Saturday Evening, Feb. 11th.

ELMER WALTERS'
LATEST SCENIC SENSATION

A Millionaire Tramp..

Nothing but Bank Notes, Gold and Laughter.

SEE The Great Church Scene, The Old Hotel, The Country Opera House, The Village Depot.

HEAR The Choir of the Church of the Holy Cross, The Song of the Christmas Revelers.

NOTHING LIKE IT EVER PRESENTED
SOMETHING SO VERY DIFFERENT

Scale of Prices 25, 35 and 50 Cents

Subscribe for the Tribune.

CATHOLIC PEOPLE

Number of Church Members is 22,127,354 According to Directory.

The Roman Catholic population of the continental United States totals 12,462,798, and adding 7,068,600 for the Philippines, 1,000,000 for Porto Rico, 32,000 for the Sandwich Islands and 1,573,862 for Cuba, the total number of Catholics under the protection of the United States is 22,127,354, according to official figures which have just been compiled by the M. H. Wiltzins company of Milwaukee for their Catholic directory for 1905.

This is the first year that the company has been able to secure absolutely authentic information concerning the Catholic population of the island dependencies of the United States. All of the figures which are given have been obtained from the bishops and archbishops of the various dioceses.

The compilation for 1904 showed the total Catholic population of the continental United States to be 11,887,317, making the increase for the year 105,041.

The detailed figures for the population of the metropolitan area of Milwaukee, including the archdiocese of Milwaukee, and the dioceses of Green Bay, La Crosse, and Marquette, totals, 625,747, an increase of almost 18,000 over the figures of 1904, 607,861.

The detailed figures for the population of the metropolitan area of Milwaukee, including the archdiocese of Milwaukee, and the dioceses of Green Bay, La Crosse, and Marquette, totals, 625,747, an increase of almost 18,000 over the figures of 1904, 607,861.

Archdiocese of Milwaukee—Archbishop, 1; clergy, secular 283, religious 68, total 349; churches with resident priests, 200; missions with churches, 87; seminaries, 4; students, 74; colleges for boys, 5; academies for girls, 8; parishes with schools, 149; children attending, 32,764; orphan asylums, 4; orphanages, 352; charitable institutions, 17; total children in Catholic institutions, 34,871; Catholic population 224,000.

Diocese of Green Bay—Bishop, 1; clergy, 173; churches with resident priests, 129; parishes with schools, 8; children attending, 14,566; orphanages, 213; total children in Catholic institutions, 15,273; Catholic population 130,000.

Manitowish is peculiarly situated in that the river divides the Milwaukee and Green Bay dioceses, all on the south side being in the former and all on the north side being in the latter.

Since 1904 two new dioceses have been added, one at Fall River, Mass., and one at Great Falls, Mont. There is talk of adding another diocese in Wisconsin.

Charged With Arson.
A. G. Mills, who has been running the White Oak saloon at Fond du Lac for several months, was arrested in that city Thursday, charged with arson. Officer Michael Griffin went to Fond du Lac Friday and took Mills to Marshfield where the crime is alleged to have been committed.

The specific charge against Mills is the burning of a livery stable at Marshfield, of which he was proprietor, on July 19, last. The stable was rented from R. H. McMullen. It burned to the ground, together with the buggies, harnesses and other equipment, which belonged to Mr. Mills. All the horses and animals were taken from the building. The livery equipment was insured, and the insurance company settled for the loss.

At the time of the fire Frank White, an ex-convict, was employed at the livery. He has remained in Marshfield since the fire and, it is said, remarks that he has made at times since then led to the present charges. The mayor of Marshfield, who makes the complaint, is also chief of the fire department, having been elected to the office of chief executive while serving as fire marshal, and having not yet resigned the latter office.

Mills remained in Marshfield until last November, when he went to Fond du Lac and acquired the White Oak saloon. He had conducted the livery stable at Marshfield for two or three years.

Later—Later reports are to the effect that Mills has been released from custody. It seems that the officer was on his way to Marshfield with the man when he received a telegram from the authorities telling him to release the prisoner. It is said that Mills has retained counsel and will institute proceedings against Marshfield authorities.

Reform Needed.
Our city police report that this city needs a humane society the worst way. They report many cases of teams left standing out in the cold for hours while the owners toast their ships by the firecracker display, and the suffering of the animals is undergoing. In many cases the owners have taken the teams and put them in a stable somewhere, but of course this has no effect on the offender. There is no question that a humane society, whose officers and members were alive might do much to remedy these evils.

Christian Science Lecture.
Mr. Bickwell Young, C. S. B., of Chicago, member of the Christian Science board of Lecturership, of the first church of the Christian Scientist in Boston, Mass., will give a lecture on Christian Science at the opera house on Thursday evening, Feb. 10, at 8 o'clock. Admission will be free and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

New Book on California.

Colorado and California is a pleasantly written narrative about the country between Chicago and San Francisco traversed by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., and its western connections. The story cleverly carries the reader from place to place along the route, pointing out the prominent and attractive features en passant, and while it goes fully into particulars it does not become tiresome or dull, and the illustrations which adorn the tale are all simple, graphic, and well executed.

The make up is admirable, showing discriminating taste, and that deftness which comes from long experience; the text is in leader 10-point on coated book, with the marginal sub-headings in Bismarck brown, and the covers show mountain and canyon scenery in color, with the title embossed in bronze, with the title-embossed in bronze.—Black Diamond Express.

WIN BOTH GAMES

Boys and Girls Victorious over Black River Falls at Basket Ball.

The two games of basket ball at the high school gymnasium last Friday evening resulted in victories for both of the teams of this city. The girls game stood 21 to 11 and the score of the boys was 36 to 10.

The game between the two girls teams was made simple on account of the fact that the umpire from Black River Falls called a foul every few seconds, getting the girls in such a state of mind that they were afraid to make a quick move for fear of fouling one of the opposing team. Notwithstanding the fact that the Black River Falls team was given innumerable free throws, they were unable to win the game.

The boys played a fast game from start to finish and outplayed the visitors at every point. They were right in the game at all times and displayed a speed and strength that was very gratifying. They also did some first class team work. There was a good crowd of spectators present, the attendance numbering something like two hundred.

Chinese New Year.

Last Thursday, Feb. 2, was the Chinese New Year, and is about the only day of the year when the real Chinaman takes a day off, puts on his best clothes and gets out and celebrates. The Chinese laundrymen can hardly be classed as real Chinamen, because they gradually adopt the manners of the people in the community in which they live, and take to observing Sunday as a day of rest, and to a certain extent discard the customs that mark the annual festival of New Year.

But where there are any number of Chinamen living the old custom of celebrating the New Year generally extends over two or three days. On that day they call on their friends, don their best clothes, and even go to the extreme of taking a bath, a custom that has been adopted by some of their more enlightened brethren. Indeed, the Chinamen's favorite color is red, and the Chinese of the favorite color of the present are wrapped in red paper of some kind, and eggs after being colored red are offered to the gods. Many laundrymen change the curtains in the windows of their stores to brighten the place, and at night the skies in the cities where there are many Chinamen are lurid with red lights which they burn to drive off the devils of misfortune and bad luck. A custom of the Chinese which might embarrass even the well-to-do American is the practice of paying all debts on New Year's day. In China a creditor may enter a debtor's house any time and help himself to anything he sees to satisfy his debt. Another peculiarity which might well be curious in the United States is the audacious frank of offering any of their wares for sale so that they might start the new year with a clean record.

Usually the Chinamen of the small towns gather at the nearest city and the whole gathering holds a big "jamboree." Usually there is an orchestra, playing sweet and sympathetic music (so called by the Chinese), and the neighborhood is entertained by a medley of noises not unlike a rattle of dish pans when the hired girl falls down the stairs. The feast begins early in the morning and lasts away into the night and aside from the many good things to eat there is much "glee wine" and Chinese tobacco. Not to be forgotten is the fireworks display with its attendant noise, sounding like the rattle of artillery. Large crowds are wont to congregate about the scene of the gathering and help the Chinese in their celebration. However, the only part that the Yankees can take in the fun is the firecracker display. The other part of the program is strictly private. In recent years much of the celebration has been done away with and no fire works are used.

On His Beat.

The editor of the Prairie View News came near being killed last Sunday while ringing the church bell. The clapper came loose and crashed down thru the belfry, missing him but a few inches. "This," says the Osborne farmer, "shows what the Lord thinks of an editor."

It isn't very often that an editor is injured by the clapper of a church bell hitting him on the head, anyway, and they generally have to adopt some other method of killing them off.

Case Adjudged.

M. J. Johnson was arrested last week on a charge of keeping a house of ill fame. The place was located east of the city limits in the town of Grand Rapids. At the time the place was raided six girls were also taken in custody. They were taken before Justice Brown on Wednesday when they gave bail to appear on the 7th. At the time an adjournment was taken until the 17th instant. The warrant for the arrest was sworn out by Wm. Eaton.

COUNCIL IN SESSION

Nothing Very Startling Occurs at Meeting of the City Fathers.

The regular meeting of the city council occurred on Tuesday evening with Mayor Nash in the chair and a quorum of aldermen present. The business transacted was mostly of a routine character, consisting of allowing a few bills, relating some small taxes where there had been mistakes by the assessor, and a few other things of minor importance. There were a number of cases where people had been taxed with things they did not possess, owing to the fact that the board took a great deal of the tax roll of last year off from that of the year before. The most of these claims were adjusted without any difficulty.

Peter McCauley presented his resignation to the council as supervisor for the city. He had filed some resignation with the city clerk some time ago, but owing to the fact that he had resigned before the county board, it was not considered necessary for the council to act on his resignation. It was accepted last night, however, and A. J. Hasbrouck was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Ben Bassett also presented his resignation as supervisor from the fifth ward on account of his having been appointed under sheriff and it was accepted by the council. E. R. Griffith was appointed to fill the vacancy.

An ordinance was introduced which provides for the punishment of persons being intoxicated on the street, swearing or using obscene language, etc. It seems that there had never been an ordinance of this kind, and it was passed without a dissenting vote.

George Lemche made an offer to the council to paint signs for the street corners and number the houses of the city so as to be ready when free delivery was established. The matter was referred to the street committee.

This was the meeting at which any alteration in the salaries of the city employees. As no action was taken on the matter the salaries will remain as before. The report of the treasurer showed the city's finances to be in better shape than they have been for some time past, and there is hope that the city will not be paying much interest on overdraft the coming year. There being no further business the council adjourned.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Marshfield News—John L. Voelker has been placed in charge of the A. J. Empey estate at Marshfield by a mutual understanding of the creditors and the stock of goods together with a proceeds divided pro rata among the creditors. Mr. Voelker expects to convert the property into cash within the next 60 or 90 days and thinks if he can find a favorable market for the stock that the creditors will receive at least 75 cents on the dollar.

Dist. Atty. Gerhard M. Dahl of Stevens Point has published an official notice that all gambling devices of the slot machine order must be removed from all public places by Feb. 3. He took this step to give proprietors time to dispose of machines. For some time gambling of this kind as well as professional gambling has been running there on a wide open plan.

A silver gray fox was poisoned last week near Eagle River by John Wiso, a resident of that place. The animal was a large one and measured over four feet in length. Pockets of the silver gray variety are extremely rare and the skin of such an animal is valued at nearly one hundred dollars according to size.—Rhinelander, N. W. North.

From Far Away to Persia.

Far away Persia will send to the Lewis and Clark Centennial an elaborate display of Oriental art. This display, which will be a notable one in Exposition history, will include a valuable collection of rugs, paintings, pottery and tapestries, the display being made officially by the Persian Government. This will be supplemented by a $1,000,000 collection belonging to Dirksen Khan Kaklam, the Persian Expedition Commissioner, who just placed this display at the disposal of Director of Exhibits, Henry E. Rosch.

Coming Entertainment.

The members of St. Laurence congregation are preparing an entertainment which will be held at Bandellin's hall on Sunday evening, February 19. It will be in the form of a play and is entitled "The Chimney Sweep and the Miller." The admission fee will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. The proceeds will go for the benefit of St. Laurence church.

Selling Mining Stock.

C. M. Palsator, manager of the Palsator Development Co., arrived in the city on Friday accompanied by C. H. Novick and Clarence H. Deane. These latter gentlemen will present to the people of this vicinity the advantage of investing in the stock of the company. Mr. Palsator states that his company is about to make a diamond drill at their own mine and by means of this it will be possible to learn whether or not there is any way of iron ore on their property. Hereafter they have about their mining by sinking a shaft, which will be cheaper in the beginning, amounts to a lot of expense before any great depth is reached. Mr. Palsator has been at Wausau for some time past, where he succeeded in interesting a number in his proposition.

PEOPLE WIN SUIT

The Water Works Suit at Marshfield Settled by Decision of Judge Stevens.

A decision in the case of W. D. Connor, R. Connor and the R. Connor Co. against the City of Marshfield, its officers and the First National Bank of that city has been rendered by Judge Stevens of Madison, and it is in favor of the Connor company.

Attorney B. R. Grogan of this city, and that gentleman had maintained that the purchase had been illegal because there is a statute which provides that in a case of this kind the matter must be submitted to a vote of the people. The judge sustained the plaintiff on this proposition. The plaintiff also maintained that the price paid for the plant, which was $150,000, was excessive. The judge found that the plant was worth only $100,000. Another claim made by the plaintiffs was that the debt incurred by the city in buying the plant was more than was allowed by law.

The outcome of this suit has been watched with a great deal of interest by the people of Marshfield, as they had taken sides with the two opposing factions, and each was anxious that their side win out. It cannot be said whether an appeal will be taken to a higher court by the defendants, but it is supposed that such will be the case.

Creamery Sold.

The Jahnke Creamery company, which owned and operated the creamery in this city located just west of the St. Paul tracks, have sold the plant to L. J. Gazeley, W. R. Chambers and A. L. Chambers. Since the creamery was built here it has been under the management of L. J. Gazeley, who reports that the concern has done a good business and is even now turning out a goodly quantity of butter each day.

The plant remains under the supervision of Mr. Gazeley, who will conduct the business of the concern along the same lines as heretofore. The name of the new company will be the Chambers Creamery Co.

Three Large Lumber.

The Grand Rapids Lumber company shipped three cars of rough lumber the past week which contained respectively 38,063 feet, 35,144 feet and 46,560, or a total in the three cars of 108,988 feet. Ten years ago this amount of lumber would have loaded eight cars, which shows how the capacity has changed during the past few years.

WANT COLUMN.

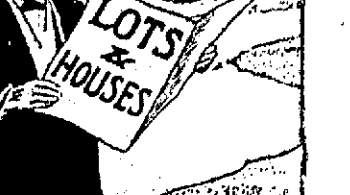

ADVERTISEMENTS will be published in the want column at the rate of 5 cents per line, no ad taken for less than 10 cents. If you want to buy, sell or trade anything, try the want column.

FOR SALE—A Smith Premier typewriter, new. Going cheap. Inquire at this office.

ORDER BOOKS—Town and School Order Books always on hand at the Tribune office, 100 orders bound in book, 35 cents.

FOR SALE—A Remington Typewriter, in good order, works as good as new; will be sold cheap either for cash or on easy monthly payments. Inquire at this office.

TYPEWRITER PAPERS—A large supply always on hand at the Tribune office. Everything from a first class linen down to the cheapest grades. The price tells the quality. Also manuscript covers.

DWELLING HOUSES

and Lots for sale. Many fine chances for investors are now offered. Our long experience in this field puts us in a position to know all about the

REAL ESTATE

In this section of the country. If you wish to buy or sell you will find it to your advantage to discuss the matter with us.

Lots in Cloverdale payable in $5.00 monthly installments.

Taylor & Scott, Agents

T. B. SCOTT FREE LIBRARY.

Hours
From 2:30 to 4 p. m. & 7 to 8:30 p. m.
Every Day Except Sunday.
From 9 to 12:30 Saturday morning.
Children's Room Closed After 6 o'clock

D. W. HITCHCOCK,

Attorney at Law.
MacKinnon Block, Grand Rapids, Wisconsin

HUMPHREY & BLANCHARD,

Physicians and Surgeons
Office in Wood County Bank Building, Residence Tel. 264, 610 & 714, 251

MISS HARRIET WILLIAMS,

Teacher of Piano.
Residence 202 Baker St. Phone 263

MRS. L. JAY TRUMBULL,

Public Stenographer
and teacher of Shorthand.
Residence 207 Washington Ave. Phone 263

F. G. GILKEY, AGENT,

Insurance.
Fire, Life and Accident. Office with G. W.
Kinnon at east end of bridge, Grand Rapids, Wisconsin.

W. E. WHEELAN,

Attorney at Law.
Office in the Italy Block on the East Side,
Grand Rapids, Wis.

W. J. CONWAY,

Attorney at Law.
Money loaned. Real estate bought and sold.
Office in Court House, East Side, and Mac-Kinnon Block, West Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

GOGGINS & BRAZEAU,

Attorneys at Law.
Office in the MacKinnon Block on the West side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

B. M. VAUGHAN,

Attorney at Law.
Money loaned. Real estate bought and sold.
Court House Block, East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

D. D. CONWAY,

Attorney at Law.
Law, Loans and Collections. We have $25,000
which will be loaned at a low rate of interest.
Office over First National Bank, East Side,
Grand Rapids, Wis.

GEO. H. METCALFE,

Attorney at Law.
Office in MacKinnon Block on the west side,
Grand Rapids, Wisconsin.

JOHN A. GAYNOR,

Attorney at Law.
Office over the Postoffice on the East Side. Will practice in all courts.

WIPPERMAN & HAMBRECHT,

Attorneys at Law.
Office on east side, over Wood County National Bank, Grand Rapids, Wis.

J. R. RAGAN,

Licensed Undertaker
and Embalmer.
Successor to J. W. Baker. Store at home 313
Night Phone 60. First Grand Rapids, Wis.

NATWICK & CARHART

Licensed
Embalmer and Funeral Directors
—Telephone—
Natwick 215 Office 384 Carhart 118

T. J. COOPER,

Justice of the Peace.
Ann. Salary Public. Office in G. W. Wood
Building, east end of bridge, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. J. W. ROCKWELL,

Physician and Surgeon.
Grand Rapids, Wis. Office over Otto's Pharmacy, west side. Hospital rooms and nurses for a limited number of patients. Telephone No. 32

DR. W. D. HARVIE,

Physician and Surgeon.
Specialty of eye, ear, nose and throat. Glasses scientifically fitted. Office over Cohen's store,
East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. A. L. RIDGMAN,

Physician and Surgeon.
Telephone No. 22. Residence phone No. 23
Office over Chicago's Drug Store on West Side,
Grand Rapids, Wis.

J. J. JEFFREY,

Lawyer.
Loans and Collections. Commercial and Probate Law. Office over Gross & Lyons.

DR. D. A. TELFER,

Dentist.
Office over Wood County National Bank on the East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. A. B. CRAWFORD,

Dentist.
High grade service at reasonable fees. Office in building on the East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

E. J. CLARK,

Dentist.
Office on West side in New Lynn Block

A New Stock

Have added a new stock
Shoes, Ladies' Gents',
Misses and Children.

Repairing is my Specialty.

G. Neiman & Son.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Chas. Gibson, son of Chief Gibson
is on the sick list.

Frank Borsert was a business visitor
in Stevens Point on Thursday.

Dr. A. E. Crawford was a business visitor in Green Bay on Thursday.

Chas. Natwick of Hansen was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Frank Downing of Dexterville was a business visitor in the city last Friday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs.
Thos. Henderson of the west side last week.

St. Catherine's Guild will meet with Mrs. Will Gross next Friday afternoon.

Eugene Sparks, who has been at Abbotsford the past month returned last week.

G. F. Hiles of Dexterville was a business visitor in this city Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. August Sator and son Raymond of Marshfield spent Sunday here with relatives.

Will Boyce is able to be out again
after a severe illness of several weeks
with the grip.

Miss Katie Kellogg, who is attending the Wausau Business college spent Sunday at home.

Miss May Hord of Berlin is the guest of her friend Mrs. J. W. Nat-wick in this city.

The clerks held a social dance at Spafford's hall last Wednesday evening and report a good time.

Mrs. E. L. Watrous of Des Moines,
Iowa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I.
P. Witte for a couple of weeks.

The W. O. T. U. will meet Friday
at 3 o'clock with Mrs. M. H. Jackson
All interested are cordially invited.

The Misses Edith and Mayno Gels-ch and Mattie Bronson spent Saturday at A. Shander's and family of Sutton.

Special rates to New Orleans, La., Mobile, Ala. and Pensacola, Fla.
account the Mardi Gras. Via C. M.
& St. P. Ry.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pepin entertained several of their friends last Thursday evening at their home on High street.

—There will be a social ball at J.
Kubinski's hall on the west side Feb.
14. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Lost—Between Rowland's store and Spafford's hill burst leather purse.
Contents, bunch of keys and 2 cents.
Amanda Voyten.

E. C. Kotelnik has been laid up the past week on account of a jaundiced leg which he received while putting up ice.

J. W. Oculian goes to Marshfield
today to be gone a couple of days on business connected with the supervisor of assessments office.

The Y. P. S. C. E. society of the Congregational church will have charge of the evening service Sunday night.
Special music has been prepared.

Albert Bohle of Calvary, Wis. is in the city today looking over the situation with a view to starting a cheese factory in this vicinity in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burr and children, who went to Seattle last summer to make their home, have returned to this city and expect to reside here permanently.

Wm. Filiz, who owns a first class blacksmith establishment at Rudolph,
was a business visitor in the city Wednesday. This office acknowledges a pleasant call.

Mrs. Philip Jacobs was seriously ill last week. Her mother, Mrs.
Boringer of Grand Rapids, was called here and remained for an extended visit.—Marshfield Times.

Will Nash and Geo. W. Purnell,
our hardware dealers, were in Milwaukee last week to attend the meeting of the retail hardware dealers association.

J. S. Thompson, manager of the Burger Box & Lumber Co., left on Monday for Dayton, Ohio, expecting to be absent a couple of weeks on business for the company.

Chas. Heiser of Vesper, who left here some time ago, is now located in Greenbush, Minn., where he will soon enter into business again. His friends here wish him success.

There will be an exhibit of valentines at the public library, made by the children of the public schools, beginning on Monday, Feb. 14. The public is invited to see the exhibit.

Oecil, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Eggert, was quite badly hurt one day last week
while coasting near the Howe high school.

The Elks held a social dance on Friday evening and had the usual good time. There were about twenty-five couples present and the music was furnished by La Broche's orchestra.

Pire last Wednesday destroyed the Kiefer block at Wausau, occupied by the Littlejohn-Beh Furniture Co., a number of offices and a piano store.
The total loss will be about $40,000
partly covered by insurance.

Geo. H. Smith received word on Monday of the death of his father,
which occurred at Manawa that day.
He left for there the same day, and Mrs. Smith expects to go there today to attend the funeral.

Mrs. J. N. Brundage and three children of Eureka, S. D., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. J.
Balderson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Daly for several weeks past, departed
for their home on Tuesday.

On March 1st to 5th inclusive
round trip tickets will be sold at one fare plus $2.00 good to return until March 11. For extension of limits etc. please call on or address G. O.
Anderson.

Hon. Herman Wiperman, of Grand Rapids, spent Sunday and Monday in this city visiting his mother and other relatives. Herman formerly resided here and his old neighbors and friends were pleased to see him.—Chilton Times.

Miss Emma Teske was most pleasantly surprised at her home in the town of Seneca on Saturday evening
by twenty of her young friends, the occasion being her sixteenth birthday.
Refreshments were served and everybody reported a "jolly old time."

The Woman's Historical and Literary society held a social evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. J.
Loose on Tuesday evening. There was a seven o'clock dinner with a social time afterward, and very pleasant evening was spent.

There are now thirty nine students
at the business college in this city,
twenty of which attend the day sessions and nineteen the night school.
Judging from the attendance it is a concern that was needed badly in this city and is evidently filling a long felt want.

Clarence Jackson entertained a number of his young friends on Saturday evening at a masquerade party.
Prizes were awarded to the best representations and these were carried off by Miss Kittie Smith and Roy Love. The young folks report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Conway returned from their wedding tour on Saturday. Some of the boys had intended to give Mr. and Mrs. Conway a warm reception upon their return, but for some reason or other,
failed to carry out their plans.

John A. Gaylor, Geo. W. Paulus,
S. N. Whittlesley, Jacob Searls, M.
O. Potter and A. C. Bennett left yesterday for Madison where they will attend the meeting of the Wisconsin Horticultural society which occurs in that city this week.

Mrs. E. C. Rossier reports that she has a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, notice of which was published in the Tribune last week. The paper has been handed down from generation to generation and is of the same date as that in the possession of Bert Nason, Jan. 4, 1800.

Mrs. H. L. Bartholomew was in Milwaukee last week, where she was called by the illness of Mr. Bartholomew's mother. She expects to go down again this week and may remain some time assisting in the care of the old lady.

The Chicago Daily Review is the only Chicago daily you can get for one dollar a year, 75c for six months, 50c for three months. All important news, a daily magazine feature, complete market reports.
Send a dollar to the Daily Review,
CoCo-Cola Building, Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. O. Denis returned on Monday
from Chicago where she had spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Denis. Mr. Denis and his wife expect to leave immediately for Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Denis having been sick with pneumonia and the change being made on account of her health.

Thursday morning about 6:30 a small blaze was discovered at the St.
Paul Ry. Co's. water tank. A fire alarm was turned in but the fire was put out before any damage was done.
The fire is supposed to have been caused by carelessness of some of the workmen who were thawing out a pipe with waste.

A law to be introduced in the legislature proposes to divide up the time for paying taxes into installments instead of making the payment
all at once as at present. Some have expressed themselves in favor of the scheme while others say that the cost of collecting taxes will be materially increased.

Miss Maude Searls of Grand Rapids, has been engaged to fill the vacancy in the South Necedah
Intermediate caused by the resignation of Miss Birdie Taylor. Miss Searls is a recent graduate from the Stevens Point Normal and has had two years teaching experience in Wood County schools.—Necedah Republican.

The masque ball given at Ram-buth's hall Saturday evening was well attended and everybody had a most enjoyable evening. There were two prizes given, one to the prettiest, who was Miss M. W. Rambuth dressed in light green silk dress
and acted as bride, and the homeliest was Miss E. Reinert who dressed as a squaw.

The amount of white pine timber standing in Minnesota at present is somewhere between ten and thirty billion feet. In Wisconsin estimates place the number of feet of standing pine at ten billion feet. This statement was made by Secretary J. E.
Rhodes, representing the Mississippi
and Wisconsin Valley Lumbermen's associations at the Northwestern
Lumbermen's convention.

If the groundhog came out on Thursday to take a squint at the weather, he certainly hurried back to his warm bed, as the sun not only shone brightly but the weather was uncomfortably cold. Wisconsin groundhogs have probably learned years ago not to place a great deal of confidence in the weather signs up in this country.

Joseph Natwick, who has been in the employ of the B. & O. road
where he has held the position of general tie inspector, has been promoted to the position of General Lumber Agent for the road with headquarters at Baltimore. This is quite an advance and Mr. Natwick's many friends here will be glad to hear that his good qualities are appreciated by his employer.

But once in over 100 years has the date for Easter fallen on so late a date as this year, April 23, but during the present century the festival
will be late in three years. In 1879 Easter Sunday fell on April 24 and this is the one time during the century that it was so late. April 23, 1916 will be Easter Sunday and in 1943 the day will come on April 24th, the latest known date occurring in the year 2000, the date will be April 23. Last but not one month in the future, coming on March 8th.

—While the country is burdened theatrically with tramp plays, few have attained any standing with theatre-goers.

"A Millionaire Tramp," which was the very first in the field, has outlived all its imitators, and nightly proves its popularity with theatre-goers by being greeted with overflowing patronage.
Bar "A Millionaire Tramp" contains much interesting dialogue, excellent comedy and splendid climaxes. The fun is of the uproarious sort, and brings forth laughter and applause of lasting duration. At the Grand Opera house Saturday, Feb. 11th.

Prof. W. D. Carlisle, who was known to a number of our people
on account of having delivered an address at the August meeting of the Wisconsin State Cranberry Growers association in 1903, died recently very suddenly at Boise, Idaho, while addressing the Northwestern Fruit Growers association. Prof. Carlisle was a native of Virginia and was a son of Senator Joo. S. Carlisle.
Mr. Carlisle was a lawyer by profession and practiced for twenty years,
but left this to follow his natural inclination of studying and experimenting in horticulture.

"What does Montgomery Ward or Sears & Roebuck pay for your wood,
your potatoes, wheat, butter and eggs, or what do they pay you for your labor? How many of you get employment from these concerns?
Either concern would let your potatoes rot on your land rather than buy
them; they wouldn't give you wood;
they wouldn't give you employment
if you were starving to death. They never pay a cent toward building up our town, and they'd rather see the town fail than prosper. About the only thing they do is to sell you the same grade of goods for a higher price than is asked by the home morchant who is the only one deserving your patronage."

M. Peterson, the cement contractor, was a caller at the Tribune office on Monday. Mr. Peterson says that he has been watching the action of the city in their refusal to grant the rebate formerly promised to one of our large corporations, and he does not like it a little bit. He says if any factory wants to locate on his way
that he and one of his neighbors will give the concern five acres of land to build on and will be glad to do it. Also that he thinks they could manage to pay their taxes for them for a time if necessary.

Owing to the dullness in the potato
trade Archie McMillan has discontinued buying potatoes at his warehouse near the Northwestern depot.
He has several cars of seed stock stored there and on this account it is necessary to keep a fire these cold
days to prevent the tubers from freezing. Sixteen cents a bushel is not a very tempting price for the farmers.
Potato men say that not over one third of the crop of the country has been marketed at this time, which would indicate that there was little prospect of a raise in the price this season.

—For Sale—Coal and wood. For prices and particular inquiry of Bossert Bros. & Eber, phone 54.

Wausau News—The Grand Rapids
Lumber company today filed in Clerk of Court Beck's office, the papers in a suit to recover $10,813.14
from the Dennison, Liver & Cooper company. The complainant alleges that it is the owner of the sw sw quarter of section 29, town 26, range
6 east and claims that the defendants did between June 10, 1903 and April 1904, wrongfully and unlawfully cut and convert to their own use the following timber, belonging to the plaintiff, and taken from the land before described: 708,010 feet of hemlock; 38,210 feet of basswood;
10,400 feet of birch; 6,850 feet of elm;
940 feet of oak; 640 feet of butternut;
70 feet of ash and 8000 cords of hemlock bark.

Leo Spangler, the York prophet,
who has been acquiring quite a reputation as a prognosticator, has handed the public a bunch of predictions during the past week that ought to hold them awhile. According to his tell the world is coming to an end in 1908, but between now and then the world is going to experience a series of wars and scraps of such magnitude that the Russian-Japanese misunderstanding will be of no more consequence than a couple of tom cats fighting on the back fence.
The United States is going to be torn by internal wars and the country will be divided up into a lot of little monarchies, and the devil will be to pay generally. That's the trouble with these prophets. As soon as they bit the nail on the head a few times
they immediately swell up and want to bring the world to an end or some equally direful calamity.

—We have opened a wholesale and retail Kentucky Liqueur store in the Bandein building. Those in need of goods of this kind will do well to see us. Jhs. Kirschling & Co

—The Modern Brotherhood of America Lodge No. 1196, of Grand Rapids, Wis., will give special rates
during the months of February and March. Persons wishing to join, ladies or gentlemen, between the ages of 18 and 48 years at the exceedingly low price of $1.50, which includes doctor's examination and initiation fees. This order was organized April 5, 1897, and has a membership of over 60,000 in good standing. Has 1,500 lodges and a reserve fund of two hundred thousand dollars, and pays $500, $1,000 or $2,000 at death. It also pays an accident and disability
for loss of hand, foot or eye to the amount of one-fourth of your policy.
It pays one-half the amount of your policy for total disability, and one-tenth the amount of your policy for a broken arm or leg. This is the society for you to join. If you wish to join and go in with the next crowd that goes in on February 18, at Mrs.
Bandein's hall you can give your application to John Herron, August Kempfert or H. S. Wagner, as this offer may not appear again.

—Go to Bruderli for shoes. It gives the greatest value for the least money.

Don't Forget to ask anyone who has ever used Warrant's White Wine of Tar for a bad cough or cold and hear what they have to say. For sale by F. L. Steib & Co.

THE ENGLISH TAILOR.

He Used to Be Humble, but Now He Is a Haughty Vampire.

Of late, he it noted, the tailor has become quite an unreasonable and grateful
don't drain on all men's purses.
Formerly you were his patron. He was very civil and gave you unintermittent opportunities for seeing the top of his head and the back of his neck.
He rubbed his hands and crawled before you for 5 guineas a suit. If you paid any time before the death of the senior partner in his business he bowed you to your equipage and said
in his heart that you were a great gentleman.

Today he is a vampire, he sucks your blood, he walks erect, he chooses cloth
for you, you must have what he tells you to have, his terms are cash on delivery, his credit will last you six months, and as often as not he is a member of your friend's club.

He is the person who makes you or masks you. With his bit of compass
he can turn you out just so or not just
so. He civil to him, I adjure you. You are only a poor, sorry, brainless, driv-eling rascal of a man. If you be not well dressed you will become a wreck,
a hulk, a derelict, a castaway on the misty shores of business and society.—
London Gentlewoman.

The Telltale.

That was an embarrassing position
in which a fashionable New York woman found herself recently. She was invited to a wedding, but did not think either of her hair was good enough for the occasion. So she visited her milliner's and had an exceedingly costly affair sent home on trial. She wore it at the wedding and the next day drove to the milliner's and returned it, saying it did not suit. It happened that the hatmaker, who quite understood the situation, had been similarly tried several times of late. "Did you not wear
this hat at the Blank wedding yesterday?" she asked bluntly. Taken by surprise, the society woman owned up,
but asked, "How did you know?" "Oh,
it was quite easy. I see several grains of rice in the folds of the lace."

A Groomsome Kaffir Custom.

A writer on the Kaffirs of South Africa says: "A Pondo chief in very old days on accession to the throne
would kill one of his brothers and wash in his blood to strengthen himself and then would keep his medicine
in the skull of the dead brother, a practice which raised the power of the medicine to the 'uth,' as mathematicians would say. If a warrior of conspicuous bravery is killed in war his body is made into medicine and administered to the young men to make them
brave, a practice which may well have been the basis of cannibalism."

The Dog Whippers.

An old clergy official in England
was the dog whipper, who was employed in driving or removing dogs
from the various churches and who is often alluded to in vestry accounts, as,
for example, "paid the dog whipper 10
shillings;" "to Widow Sandra the year's salary for dog whipping 5 shillings." Implements known as dog tongs were also used by these dog
whippers, many of them being spiked
at the end and capable of giving a cruel grip. They are still preserved in some of the old churches.

The Concluder.

"What conclusion did your literary and debating society reach last night?"
"Oh," answered Miss Cayenne, "the conclusion was as usual—chicken salad, ice cream and 'Good night.' Had a perfectly lovely time."—Washington Star.

Of More Interest.

Neil-Jack is always talking to me about the depth of his love. Belle-The depth wouldn't interest me so much as the length.—Philadelphia Record.

Don't thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life
is made of.—Benjamin Franklin.

Three of a Kind

Wouldn't seem to beat two pair, in this case. But an old-timer, who has "sat in"
with a little party "just to make the play a bit more interesting," will tell you that they always do. But we aren't worrying about what can

Beat Two Pair

one of a kind, I all we have
and all we want. Of course
we've switched the subject
and are talking about business now—our own business, too. We aren't caring what

Any One

else does in business. We intend to do the square thing. We aren't the kind to hold an ace or two up our sleeves. Our stock of Building Material of

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

NEKOOSA.

Next Friday evening the third number of the entertainments given by the Lyceum Bureau will be given at Nekoosa hall. This number will be the Maryland Jubilee company and promises to be very good.

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. Wm. Hanger entertained the lady teachers and in the afternoon the Ladies aid society met there.

Henry Buchanan died at his home last Friday at the age of 62 of a complication of diseases. He was buried Monday afternoon, the services being held at the Congregational church.

The Ladies aid society held a fund-raising at Jones' jewelry store last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Robinson and Heiser spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes.

Geo. Pickett has left the Nekoosa Mercantile and accepted a position as traveling salesman.

Mrs. Gaudy of Port Edwards was in town Saturday.

Miss Fannie Burrows of Port Edwards was at Mrs. Polvin's over Sunday.

Geo. Conway was up from Chicago last Friday looking over some land with a view to buying.

M. Sayre has returned to work tending machines.

Ed. Footit was down from Broken Sunday.

Mr. Fitch of Cranmoor was in town Monday evening.

Don't forget "How can I forget Warner's White Wine of Tar?" says Mrs. M. Burgess of Nekoosa. "It cured me when I was thought to be in the last stages of consumption." For sale by F. L. Stahl & Co.

Fraud Exposed.
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to be on your guard, for you seek to be cured of such diseases, the reputation of which have been successfully carrying on.

A sign is placed on the wrapper, look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's, remedies, as all others are mere imitations. It is Bucklen & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Waterloo, Canada. Daily Drug & Jewelry Co.

PITTSVILLE.
From the Pilot.

After an illness covering a period of about two years, Nelson Covey, a carpenter, who has been resident of Pittsville over twenty four years, passed away Tuesday evening of this week, death being the result of a disease of the eyes which he contracted while working at his trade.

Mr. Covey was about 47 years of age, having been born on March 8, 1868, at Aurora, Mo. He was married on Nov. 4, 1881, to Miss Dora Savers and is survived by his wife and three children: Miss Mabel, aged 16; Fred, 12; and Nina 7.

Deceased was a member of the Modern Woodmen, in which order he carried $9,000 life insurance.

On Wednesday the farm house occupied by L. W. Noyes, owned by J. D. Potter, of this city, was destroyed by fire and is a total loss, uninsured. The place is about two miles north of the Rock farm.

Mrs. Noyes was ill in bed at the time of the fire and had to be carried to a neighboring farm house.

Beautiful eyes and handsome face are frequent commendations. Bright eyes are windows to a woman's heart. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes bright eyes. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.

At about 8:30 Monday evening, the farm house of Robert Holmes, the blacksmith, located about four miles north west of Pittsville, caught fire and within a very short time was reduced to ashes, giving the occupants little time to save any of the household furniture, nearly all of which was destroyed. The place was occupied by Mr. Holmes' son-in-law, Louis Schultze and family, who have been in charge of the farm since October last. The fire was caused by a defective chimney and was discovered by Mr. Schultze at about 8:30 when he returned to the house after being out to the barn.

The blaze was then under such a headway that there was no hope of saving the building and every effort was made to remove the contents to a place of safety, but most of it went down with the building, the time being too short to accomplish much. The place was very lightly insured, the amount being only $375 on the house and $150 on the contents, insured by the Seneca, Signal & Rudolph Mutual Insurance Co., of Wood county.

STRONGS PRAIRIE.

Mrs. Mary Benson of Rudolph, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jacobson, at their place.

Mrs. Henry Oakley died at her home in Strong's Prairie, Jan. 25th. The funeral was held in the Norwegian church.

Twelve new members were taken into the literary society last Wednesday night.

Ray Howard, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howard, died last Wednesday morning. The funeral was held at the United Brethren church conducted by the Rev. J. S. Durfee. The remains were laid to rest in the Spring Creek cemetery.

Steve Mattison was admitted as a member in the Woodmen of the World Lodge at Strong's Prairie last Saturday night.

Mrs. B. W. Sinclair of Spring Creek, spent Monday with Mr. Bloomfield's family of this place.

A Card.
We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Groene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. Daily Drug and Jewelry Co.

The Best in the World.
Dr. J. W. Hamilton of S. A. Francis, Cal., says: "I have sold Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup for years and it is the best cough remedy I ever saw and has no equal for asthma." For sale by F. L. Stahl & Co.

SARATOGA.
Tim Smith of Plainfield spent a couple of days at the home of his father-in-law, H. Petersen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Grand Rapids visited at the home of Mrs. Lena Hanson Tuesday.

The agent for the Watkins' remedies was in this vicinity last week. Auton Chicalosky of Grand Rapids was seen here last week.

Agonizing Burns
are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully, that it blistered. I used all Bucken's Arnica Salve, and it healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at Daily Drug & Jewelry Co.

Why Not Return Him?
One of the foreign diplomats in our Washington society had been greatly troubled with his eyes, finding it necessary for a time to wear some very large smoked glasses, which occasioned great distress and fear in the mind of his fourteen-year-old son, by annulling it in a most discreet way by providing his father whenever he wore the glasses.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Why Not Return Him?
One of the foreign diplomats in our Washington society had been greatly troubled with his eyes, finding it necessary for a time to wear some very large smoked glasses, which occasioned great distress and fear in the mind of his fourteen-year-old son, by annulling it in a most discreet way by providing his father whenever he wore the glasses.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

One morning this benign dignity overheard as he was passing the nursery door: "Mother, if father is blind, must we keep him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.